

Parent Information Network & The Support Network Support Group for Parent Support Professionals

We will be leading the discussion on balancing family, life, and work. Guests will be invited to share the tips and tools that have helped balance on your journey of using your lived experience to help families on their journey. We will be providing an open space to talk amongst like-minded individuals who understand the challenges and victories of Parent Professionals.

Open to all Parent Coordinators, Family Partners, Family Support Specialists, and anyone in a Parent Partner role.
